

Happy Thanksgiving to you and WATER colleagues around the world!

In the United States, we celebrate Thanksgiving on Thursday, November 25, 2010. It is a day to take time with family and friends to be grateful for our many blessings. It is also an opportunity to recommit to sharing the world's abundance with ALL the world's people.

You and your ceaseless efforts to bring about a just and loving world are part of what we celebrate this Thanksgiving Day. We are grateful for your collaboration in our work to bring feminist religious values to the service of social change. We will raise a glass in your honor!

Thank you for putting WATER at the top of your giving list this season. You can donate generously today by sending a check or making an online donation to WATER.

Enjoy the holiday season and let the blessings of Thanksgiving provide new energy for our common work.

Happy Thanksgiving,
