Happy Holidays

A Happy Thanksgiving to You and to All!

In the United States, we celebrate Thanksgiving on Thursday, November 24, 2011. It is a day to take time with family and with friends and to be grateful for our bountiful blessings. It is also an opportunity to recommit to spreading the world's abundance around the globe.

You and your ceaseless efforts to bring about a just and loving world are part of what we celebrate this Thanksgiving Day. We are grateful for your collaboration in our work to create social change through the use of feminist religious values. We will raise our glasses in your honor!

Thank you for putting WATER at the top of your giving list this season. We invite you to donate generously today by sending a check to WATER or making a gift online at www.waterwomensalliance.org. No amount is too big or too small.

Rejoice in the holiday season, and let the blessings of Thanksgiving be a reminder of all that we have to offer and the joy that sharing brings.

Happy Thanksgiving,
